About Me

Christopher Wiseman is an only child from Central New York. He moved to San Francisco in 2003 and graduated from the University of San Francisco with a Bachelor of Arts in Politics; Performing Arts and Social Justice with a minor in Public Service in 2007. During his time in college, he served as President of Alpha Sigma Nu and studied abroad in Lima, Peru, Budapest, Hungary and Madrid, Spain. Developing a love for travel and meeting new people, he spent several years in Europe and Asia after college.

Upon returning to the United States and settling in San Francisco, he embarked in a career in meeting and event management, obtaining the prestigious CMP designation, specializing in not-for-profit fundraisers, conferences and galas. After working as a consultant with numerous organizations around the country, he joined the Glaucoma Research Foundation and continues to produce education, research and fundraising events throughout North America.

Christopher is a member of Meeting Planners International, the Rotary Club of San Francisco, the California Yacht Club and the City Club of San Francisco. He is active in his community, serving on the Board of Directors for the Merola Opera Program and the Golden Gate Breakfast Club, as well as a Docent for the Haas-Lilienthal house.

His leisure activities include running, reading non-fiction, eating Basque and French cuisine and spending time with his partner, friends and family.

Joining the Black Tie Club in 2020, he is excited to be a part of this wonderful community!
