
NICHOLAS PALEOLOGOS

About Me

Nicholas Paleologos was raised in California's Central Valley. After a typical 50's childhood, he knew that there was somewhere bigger and more exciting than farms and small towns. Higher education was the ticket to the Big City of Los Angeles. After graduating from Occidental College and receiving an MBA from the University of Southern California, Nicholas began his career in Washington, DC with a major accounting firm. Luckily, his job postings included many US locations as well as international assignments. Finally, settling in San Francisco in the early 1980's, he started a new career in the insurance business. Nicholas met Michael Scharlau in the early 90's and they have been together for more than 25 years. Nicholas and Michael were founding members of the San Francisco Black Tie Club. Currently, they split their time between San Francisco and their home in Palm Springs while traveling/cruising and spending time with friends and family.
